About Terra Fluvia:

- Formerly Fitchett's Blueberries, Terra Fluvia was established in 2013. The name Terra Fluvia is Latin for "River Earth."
- Terra Fluvia boasts the Willamette Valley's oldest high bush blueberries (as far as we know!).
- There are several blueberry varieties on site. This allows you to pick berries for all sorts of tasty treats (pies, jams, or just plain eating!).
- Pro tip: To freeze blueberries, spread in a single layer on a cookie sheet and place in freezer. Once frozen, transfer to another container for storage.
- We have a dock on the Willamette River, just steps from the blueberries. If you're interested in canoeing or floating your way to Terra Fluvia, that's awesome, just give us a heads up!

2/3 cup sugar
1/2 cup all purpose flour
1/2 tsp ground cinnamon
1/3 cup cold butter, cubed

Mix butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in egg. Combine flour, baking powder and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with milk, beating well after each addition. Fold in blueberries. Pour into greased 9-in. square baking pan.

For topping: In a small bowl, combine sugar, flour, and cinnamon. Add butter until crumbly. Sprinkle over blueberry mixture.

Bake at 375° for 40-45 minutes or until a toothpick comes out clean.
